Customer Grievance Redressal Policy

Background:

Customer Service is a key focus area of the Bank. Customer Service for the Bank is a holistic approach targeting consistent improvement in customer experience and quality of operations. The Bank strongly believes that a satisfied customer is the most important factor in developing our business.

The Customer Grievance Redressal Policy outlines the framework for addressing the customer grievances. The Bank shall ensure that the policy is made available in public domain (website and branches).

Objectives:

The objective of the policy is to ensure that:

- All customers are always treated fairly and without bias
- All issues raised by customers are dealt with courtesy and resolved on time
- Customers are made completely aware of their rights so that they can opt for alternative remedies if they are not fully satisfied with our response or resolution to their complaint

Applicability/Coverage:

A Complaint means a representation in writing or through other modes alleging deficiency in service on the part of the Bank and seeking relief thereon.

Further, deficiency in service means a shortcoming or an inadequacy in any service, which the Bank is required to provide statutorily or otherwise, which may or may not result in financial loss or damage to the customer.

This policy is applicable to all customers including:

- Customers from rural areas
- Beneficiaries of financial assistance under Priority Sector and Government's Poverty Alleviation Programmes
- Customers from overseas branches/offices
- Non-Resident Indian (NRI) and/or Person of Indian Origin (PIO) customers who avail products or services from the Bank
- Pension account holders including those covered under Atal Pension Yojana, National Pension Schemes, Civil and Defence Pension and Employment Provident Fund Organisation Pension
- Third party product distributed/referred by the Bank
- Customers availing Small Saving Schemes of Government of India which includes Sukanya Samridhi Yojana, Public Provident Fund, Senior Citizen Savings Scheme and Kisan Vikas Patra
- Customers opening account under Pradhan Mantri Jan Dhan Yojana
- Customers availing Pradhan Mantri Social Security schemes which includes Pradhan Mantri Jeevan Jyoti Bima Yojana and Pradhan Mantri Suraksha Bima Yojana
- Customers making tax payment for which RBI has authorised the Bank, under Agency Business
- Microfinance customers
- Customers availing Service from outsourcing agencies appointed by the Bank
- Buyout and co-lending portfolio as per agreement with originator/partner
- Any other schemes introduced by the Government and serviced by the Bank

1. Principles of grievance redressal:

The guiding principles of the approach to grievance redressal are as follows:

i. Transparency: The customer shall be provided with information regarding the channels they can access to service their requirements and resolve their issues. In addition, the turn-around time for issues to be redressed, including investigation and resolution, shall be communicated transparently.

ii. Accessibility: The Bank shall enable the customers to avail of services through multiple published channels.

iii. Fairness: The Banks approach towards grievance redressal is of fairness to the customer and fairness to the bank. It also promotes good and fair banking practices by setting minimum standards in all dealings with the customer.

iv. Escalation: Information on the process of escalation of complaints to the next level, in case the customer is not satisfied with the resolution provided is made available in the branches/digital channel/phone banking.

v. Customer Education: The Bank shall endeavor to make continuous efforts to educate its customers to enable them to make informed choices regarding banking products and reduce errors in banking transactions.

vi. Review: The Bank have forums such as Standing Committee on Customer Service and Customer Service Committee of the Board to review customer grievances and enhance the quality of customer service.

2. Aspects of grievance redressal policy:

a. Registration of complaints: The Bank enables customers to avail services through multiple channels. The various channels available to customers for registering the complaints are as follows:

- Customer care: Customers can contact our Customer Care over the phone for redressal of issues or send an e-mail @ customer.care@icici.bank.in or send a letter to the mail ids/addresses displayed in the escalation matrix at the branches and on the website. For more details visit www.icici.bank.in > Customer Service > Contact Us.

- Branch: Customer can speak to the branch officials for resolution of their issues or register their grievances through the complaint book available in the branches. Alternatively, customers can drop their complaint/feedback in the feedback suggestion boxes or register their complaint in the complaint book available at the branch.

- Bank's website: Customers can lodge a complaint through the Customer Service section on the home page of the Bank's website. Customers can also write to the MD/CEO, Business Heads, Regional Nodal Officers, Principal Nodal Officer, line functioning heads of respective products, as updated on the "Complaints" page of the Bank's website, in case they are not satisfied with the resolution provided through any channels. Further, customers can lodge a complaint by visiting the customer service tab on the logged in section of Retail Internet Banking.

- iMobile: Customer can seek resolution for their issues or register their grievances through the "Services" option of the iMobile app. The path of the same is:
  - Non-logged in section (NLI):
    - For Android: iMobile Home screen > Services > Complaints
    - For IOS: iMobile Home screen > Customer Services > Lodge a complaint
  - Logged in section: Logged in Screen > Services > Raise a Complaint

- Social Media: Customer can seek resolution for their issues or register their grievances at:
  - ICICI Bank Facebook page (https://www.facebook.com/icicibank/)
  - "X' (twitter) at #ICICIBank_Care (https://twitter.com/ICICIBank_Care)
  - Instagram at #ICICIBank (https://instagram.com/icicibank)
  - LinkedIn at www.linkedin.com/company/icici-bank

Customers for demat services can write to headdematservices@icici.bank.in in case they are not satisfied with the resolution provided through various channels.

b. Recording and tracking of complaints: All the complaints received by the Bank and its overseas branches are recorded and tracked for end-to-end resolution. All the complaints received in India must be lodged in Customer Relationship Management system (CRM) and assigned to respective groups for resolution. In case of non-availability of CRM in overseas branches, the complaints need to be registered in the complaint register of the branch, and the MIS is sent to Customer Service Group (CSG) by the respective teams.

c. Acknowledgement: Acknowledgement is given to all the customers as mandated by the regulator.

d. Resolution of complaints:

- Responsibility for resolution:
  - The business heads (branch heads in case of overseas branches) are responsible for the resolution provided by their teams and for the closure of customer issues.
  - Banks need to have a robust grievance redressal mechanism to deal with the grievances/service deficiencies related to services provided by the outsourced agency/arrangements done by the Bank.

    - Time frame for response: The turn-around time for responding to a complaint is:
      i. Normal cases (other than the one mentioned below): A clearly defined turn-around-time (TAT) depending upon the nature of issue is communicated to the customer at the time of lodging of complaints
      ii. Fraud cases and cases which need retrieval of documents and exceptionally old records: 30 working days
      iii. Cases involving 3rd party (other Banks): 30 working days
      iv. Chargeback related cases: 45 to 90 days or as specified in VISA/Master Card guidelines.
      v. For all the complaints received from the regulator, timelines as mandated by the respective regulator will be adhered to and for overseas branches the timelines as mandated by respective local regulators will be adhered and the response will be routed through the compliance officer of the respective location
      vi. If any case needs additional time, the Bank will inform the customer/regulator the reasons for delay in resolution and provide expected timelines for resolution of the issue

vii. Unauthorised Electronic Banking Transaction (UEBT): The Bank has formulated a Board approved Customer Relations Policy for unauthorised electronic Banking transactions reported by customers. The policy covers in detail the liability of a customer in different scenarios. Complaints are resolved and liability of the customer, if any, established within such time, as may be specified in the Bank's Board approved policy, but not exceeding 90 days from the date of receipt of the complaint. To know more about UEBT, please refer to the Customer Relations Policy.

viii. If the complaints are not redressed within one month TAT (except for complaints where TAT has been defined in "Timeframe for response" paragraph as mentioned above), the concerned branch/controlling office should forward a copy/report of the same to the concerned Nodal Officer under the Banking Ombudsman Scheme and keep him updated regarding the status of the complaint.

- Compensation: In case the Bank is liable to pay any compensation, the same would be paid to the complainant as per the provisions of the Customer Compensation Policy of the Bank. To know more about the Customer Compensation Policy, please click Compensation Policy.

e. Escalation of complaints: If a customer is not satisfied with the resolution provided through various channels, the customer can escalate the issues to the next higher level, as displayed in the escalation matrix available at the branches/Bank's website. A detailed escalation matrix is available online at Escalation matrix.

The Principal Nodal Officer (PNO), Senior Management of the Bank (SME) and Head Service Quality (HSQ) are at the highest level of the grievance redressal mechanism in the Bank.

- Principal Nodal officer: If the customer is not satisfied with the resolution provided even after contacting various complaint resolution channels, the complaint may be escalated to the Principal Nodal Officer at:

The Principal Nodal Officer
ICICI Bank Ltd,
ICICI Bank Towers,
Bandra Kurla Complex,
Mumbai 400 051.

Or send an e-mail at: pno@icici.bank.in
For PNO complete details click here

- Internal Ombudsman (IO) of the Bank:
  - The IO is an independent apex authority and is not an ICICI Bank employee. All complaints which are partially resolved or wholly rejected would be referred to the IO of the Bank before communicating the decision to the complainant.
  - Complaints related to corporate fraud, misappropriation, etc. would be referred to the IO in respect of deficiency of service.
  - Complaints relating to internal administration, human resources, pay and emoluments of staff, complaints which have been decided by or are already pending in other fora such as the Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission, courts, etc. and disputes for which remedy has been provided under Section 18 of the Credit Information Companies (Regulation) Act, 2005, etc. would not be examined by the IO.
  - All partially resolved or wholly rejected complaints will be referred to the IO within 20 days excluding the timelines defined by RBI, NPCI, card network guidelines, where the TAT is pre-defined. The final decision will be communicated to the customer within 30 days.
  - The decision of the Internal Ombudsman will be binding on the Bank, the same can be overruled with the approval of the competent authority.

- Escalation to the regulator: In case the customer is not satisfied with the Banks response, the customers shall approach the Reserve Bank Integrated Ombudsman (RBIO) Centralised Receipt and Processing Centre for redressal.

The details of RBIO are made available at the branches and on the Bank's website. For more details you may visit the link: RBIO Address.

Customers can also approach RBIO directly at (https://cms.rbi.org.in) in case the complaint is not resolved as per RBIO scheme.

f. Quality of resolution: The Bank shall conduct monthly quality audit to ensure proper classification and assignment of requests/complaints and to check whether the resolution is complete and correct. Quality scores to be shared with the key stakeholders at regular intervals and discussed in the Standing Committee on Customer Service and are reported to the Customer Service Committee of the Board.

g. Customer feedback: The Bank shall have a structured program of customer surveys that are conducted to understand customer satisfaction with the services provided by the Bank. In addition to the periodic surveys conducted to gauge satisfaction with the transactions, separate surveys should be conducted to obtain customer feedback on specific issues. In addition to structured customer surveys, feedback from customers shall also be obtained through branch-level service meetings and various questionnaires/meetings for improvement in customer service.

h. Process improvements: The product teams, channels and units shall ensure that the information on customer complaints is used for process improvement. The complaints would essentially provide valuable insight into areas of improvements within the Bank's internal processes and procedures (including automated processes) that impact Bank's ability to conduct its business efficiently and successfully.

i. Employee training and awareness: Staff will be periodically trained based on handling and resolving customer issues. Issues or complaints shall be resolved based on the following principles:
   - Prompt response within the stipulated time frame
   - Maximization of customer retention at minimum cost
   - Correction of mistakes and errors quickly
   - Minimize further complaints
   - Salient features of RBIO scheme are being displayed in prominent locations in branches and websites

3. Forums to review customer grievances and enhance the quality of customer service:

i. Branch Level Customer Service Committee (MILAP): The Bank has constituted the Branch Level Customer Service Committee (MILAP). MILAP acts as a forum to enable customers to meet and interact with the senior managers of the Bank with the following objectives:

- Collect customer feedback on services provided by the Bank
- Enable senior managers to get firsthand feel of requirements / demands
- Reduce information gap between customers and Bank
- Most importantly build trust amongst customers

The details of MILAP meetings, inputs/suggestions made at such meetings shall be reported to the Standing Committee on Customer Service for their examination and providing relevant feedback to the Customer Service Committee of the Board for necessary policy/procedural action.

ii. Standing Committee on Customer Service: The Customer Service Council (CSC) of the Bank functions as the Standing Committee on Customer Service. The Customer Service Council is chaired by an Executive Director; Business Heads and the Heads of related departments are members of the Council. The Council shall focus on building and strengthening customer service orientation in the Bank through initiating various measures including simplifying processes for improvement in customer service levels. The CSC shall meet on a bi-quarterly basis to review service updates, ongoing projects specifically targeted at the improvement of customer service and appropriate actions arising from discussions. The CSC carries out the following specific functions:

- Evaluates feedback on the quality of customer service received from various quarters.
- Review comments/feedback on customer service and implementation of Bank's Code of Commitments to customers formulated by Banking Codes and Standards Board of India (BCSBI).

- Ensure that the Bank follows all regulatory instructions regarding customer service and actionables pointed out by the Committee on Procedures and Performance Audit on Public Services.
- Submit report on its performance to the Customer Service Committee of the board at quarterly intervals.
- The Committee also would consider unresolved complaints/grievances referred to by functional heads responsible for redressal and offer their advice.

iii. Customer Service Committee of the Board: The Customer Service Committee of the Board overlooks the implementation of various customer service guidelines as mandated by RBI. The Committee also reviews the top areas of complaints, product-wise category, complaints trends, root cause analysis, customer service initiatives, etc. and deliberates innovative measures for enhancing the quality of customer service and improving overall service levels. The Committee also reviews the functioning of the Standing Committee on Customer Service (Customer Service Council of the Bank).

4. Reporting requirements: The following reports shall be submitted to the Customer Service Committee of the Board as and when it meets. The reports shall include the following information:

- The total number of complaints received during the reporting period with Product wise summary of complaints. e.g. Liabilities, Credit Card, Home Loan, Unauthorized Electronic Banking Transaction (UEBT), etc. along with Root Cause Analysis of complaint.
- Top issues emanating from analysis of complaints
- Total number of complaints outstanding at the end of the reporting period and ageing of outstanding complaints
- Claim pertaining to deceased depositors
- Locker hirers/depositors of safe custody article accounts and those pending beyond the stipulated period
- Review of Branch Level Customer Service Committee Meetings
- Half yearly review of activities of Internal Ombudsman
- Analysis of RBIO cases and Appeals to the Appellate Authority
- Analysis of complaints received at overseas branch

- Analysis of consumer court cases
- Update on Doorstep Banking services
- Awards received by the Banks
- Update on ramps and Braille enabled ATM/CRM

Overseas branches should maintain data of all the complaints received and send periodic reports to the Customer Service Group team for compilation and reporting.

Enhanced disclosures on complaints: To ensure provision of relevant and important information to customers and other stakeholders, the current set of disclosures in Annual report would be replaced with disclosures as specified in Annexure 1

5. Operational framework for overseas branches: The overseas branches shall formulate the process for handling customer complaints at branches in accordance with the prevalent regulatory guidelines. The branches shall acknowledge the complaints, update the customers on the status of the complaint and display the escalation matrix on the branch notice board/website. Additionally, the branches shall report the status of the complaints to the corporate office at periodic intervals.

6. Operational framework for third party products: The Bank holds the license of a composite Corporate Agent with IRDAI for solicitation of life and general insurance business. The Bank will ensure adherence to the IRDAI (Registration of Corporate Agents) Regulations, 2015 with respect to redressal of grievances relating to insurance. The offices of the Bank where complaints related to insurance products sold by the Bank are received will acknowledge the complaint and facilitate redressal of the same within 14 days of receipt of such complaint. The Bank will also ensure adherence to the Code of Conduct as prescribed under the Regulations.

7. Operational framework for buyout and co-lending portfolio: With respect to the Bank's buyout and co-lending portfolio, the customer complaints/grievances shall be handled as per the agreement with the originator/partner. Bank's Standing Committee of Customer Service will review the status update of complaints handled by originator/partners.

8. Interaction with customers: The Bank recognises that the customer's expectation/requirement/grievances can be better appreciated through personal interaction with customers by bank's staff. Structured customer awareness meets are being carried out to give a message to the customers that the bank values their feedback/suggestions for improvement in customer service.

9. Dispute Resolution: If the parties are unable to resolve the claim or dispute in terms of this Customer Grievance Redressal Policy within the period stipulated herein, the claim or dispute may be referred by means of applicable dispute resolution provisions in the relevant product or service terms and conditions/agreements. The terms and conditions/agreements of certain products and services provide for the claim or dispute to be referred for resolution by means of arbitration in terms of the applicable rules of "SAMA" which shall be conducted (including for recording of evidence or tendering of documents), concluded and administered online by SAMA through its website/platform www.sama.live or mobile application.
